Article 8

The Annual General Meeting is held every year before the end of May, at the time and place determined by the Board of Directors. The meeting is convened with at least 21 days' written notice. The agenda for the meeting shall be sent out with the notice of the meeting.

The Board of Directors may decide that documents pertaining to matters to be dealt with at the Annual General Meeting that have been made available to the shareholders on the company's website will not be sent to shareholders. This also applies to documents that by law must be included in or attached to the notice of the Annual General Meeting. Shareholders may nevertheless request to be sent documents pertaining to matters to be dealt with at the Annual General Meeting.

Shareholders or their authorised representatives who wish to attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting must notify the company of this within the deadline specified in the notice of the meeting. This deadline must not expire earlier than five days before the Annual General Meeting.

The Annual General Meeting shall:

- Adopt the annual accounts and annual report, including employment of profit or covering of loss, and approve the distribution of a dividend.
- Elect members of the nomination committee.
- Determine the number of Board members, elect the Board members who by law shall not be elected by the employees and any alternates for the Board members elected by the shareholders.
- Consider the Board of Directors' statement on remuneration to senior executives.
- Deal with other business that is by law to be addressed by the General Meeting.

Article 9

Unless otherwise provided for in these Articles of Association, the provisions in the Public Limited Companies Act (Norway) shall apply.
